

Household Camp 2008

August 1-3 at Sky Ranch Lutheran Camp

Let's go camping for the weekend!!! Join Pastor Steve and Pastor Paul for singing around the campfire, reflecting on God in a beautiful setting, hiking through the woods that push up against Rocky Mountain National Park or resting on the deck of the lodge with the humming birds. Sky Ranch Lutheran Camp is located two and a half hours from Longmont, off the Poudre Canyon Road from Fort Collins. (see map)

You can arrive as early as 3:00 p.m. on Friday and the weekend ends with worship on Sunday morning after brunch.

You can chose your accommodations from the lodging listed on the registration form. There is a campground with electric hook ups and a shower house just a short distance away. A tent area is also in the same location. The bunkhouses can hold one or two families for up to eight people and they are heated. Bring your neighbors and head for a bunkhouse. Christ Lodge offers motel style rooms, each with a queen size bed and bunk beds and restrooms in the same building. This space is ideal for retired people or families with small children.

No meals will be provided on Friday night... eat on your way up or bring a sack lunch or cook stove. Join the congregational pot-luck supper (bring your own meat and something to share) on Friday in the campground at 6:30 p.m., if you can make it. All meals on Saturday and brunch on Sunday are provided and included in the cost of lodging. A sack lunch can be provided on Saturday for those who are going hikes for the day.

Optional activities are available at an added cost. There is a high ropes course which is popular with high school students for $15.00 per person. Six hour guided hikes by camp staff can also take place on Saturday at $15.00 per person. Groups are always able to do unguided hikes with directions provided by the camp at no charge. A river with trout runs through the camp. Bring that fly rod (and a fishing license is required for those over 15).
